Governing Board Nominating Committee Form

Guide the Future of First Community

The 2022 Governing Board is preparing to develop a slate of 24 qualified nominees for the position of Nominating Committee, 12 of which will be elected to serve a 2 year term beginning with the 2023 Annual Church Member Meeting.

The Governing Board depends on church members' participation. We ask you to submit names of qualified Individuals, who meet the requirements, to serve on the Nominating Committee. We have Important work before us that will help define the future of First Community. Please prayerfully consider your recommendation of candidates for this Important church office.

Please complete the nomination form on the back of this page for any candidate you believe meets the qualifications for this church leadership position. Self-nominations are welcome. Please fill out the form as completely as possible, with church as well as professional, community and personal attributes.

Your input to the Governing Board is greatly appreciated.

Cydney Philbin

2022 Past Chair Governing Board

Nominating Committee nominees should be church members in good standing and active for a sufficient length of time to know and appreciate the programs and business of the church. Neither current Governing Board members, Board of Deacon members, First Community staff nor their spouses are eligible.
